

Operational debriefing training

Online mobile microlearning at your pace
Designed for the international humanitarian context

3 sequential components

C1: 14 e-learning modules

- Overview, aims & guiding principles
- Mindsets
- Formulating questions
- Active listening
- Structure
- Issues that may arise
- Notetaking
- Policies & protocols for dealing with disclosures
- Red flags
- How to prepare for an operational debriefing
- How to start an operational debriefing
- How to close an operational debriefing
- Wellbeing, support & self-care
- Master Quiz

C2: Online small group micro skills coaching

Practice and practical application for formulating questions, applying mindsets and active listening in small and supportive group format.

C3: Online small group simulation coaching

Practice and practical application in working through a simulated operational debriefing session using role play in small and supportive group format.

(C2 & C3 recommended but optional)

To order training registrations

- Mastery oriented learning
- Supplementary assignments
- Handouts
- Applied learning opportunities
- Hurdle requirements for course certification
- Available in different (AI translated) languages by request
- Equivalent 2-day training

Proudly supported by

Standby Partnership

The humanitarian

For more information:

<https://www.thehumanitarian.com.au/operational-debriefing-training/>

Email: workshops@thehumanitarian.com.au

The Humanitarian is an Australian based psychosocial training, facilitation & support service.

